

Animal Welfare Board of India
Sikri, Ballabhgarh, Haryana

18-1/2023-24/Recog

12th July, 2023

Notice

The Animal Welfare Board of India has provided recognition to more than 3700 organizations and list of the same was available on the website of the Board. In this regard, it has been observed that many of these organizations are either non-functional or not in existence. Therefore, the Board has decided to seek information on the functioning / existence of these organization from the State Governments and requested them vide letter dated 17.06.2021, 18.05.2022 and 19.05.2023 It is observed that many of the organizations are found defunct as per the reports received from the Animal Husbandry Department of the respective States/UTs.

Further, the Board requested these organization to renew their recognition vide letter dated 27.05.2022. Till Date, only 65 organizations has requested for renewal of recognition which are under consideration in the Board. Therefore, the information regarding recognised organization is only available for the last five years i.e. from 2018-19 to 2022-23 onwards until the earlier recognised organization renew the recognition of their organization with the Board.

In view of the foregoing, the competent authority of the Board has decided to remove the list of such organizations from the website of the Board for time being or till such time these organizations renew their recognition with the Board.

Secretary, AWBI